

Client: Private

Location: Central London

Hurst Joinery manufactured and installed a number of bespoke joinery items for a university student accommodation project in central London, working with a leading London contractor.

Scope of Works:

- Manufacture and installation of bespoke concierge desk with painted finish and oak counter.
- Upholstered banquette seating, wall panelling with painted finish and oak topped tables in recreation room.
- Upholstered seating for private cinema room.

